SUNDAY JULY 28, 2019 ~ 17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Sacrament of Baptism

Baptism is celebrated on dates that are mutually convenient for Father Nasta and the parents. Before a Baptism date can be set, parents should secure letters of eligibility for their recommended Godparents and present them to the rectory. Parents attendance at our Parish's Pre-Jordan program should be satisfied before a Baptism date is set. Parents are asked not to make any celebratory arrangements until a Baptism date is confirmed by our Rectory staff.

The Sacrament of Confession

Saturday afternoon: 3:15pm – 3:45pm.
By appointment at the rectory anytime.

The Sacrament of Marriage

Please speak to Father Nasta at least six months before your anticipated Wedding date. Couples should not make any celebratory arrangements until after they have met with Father at our Parish.

The Sacrament of The Sick

Please speak to Father Nasta if you or a family member wish to receive the Sacrament of the Sick. It is always appropriate to receive this Sacrament before surgery, during a serious illness or in the final stages of life.

Our Parish Prayer of Unity

Heavenly Father,
You call us to be Your faith-filled people,
United in the Sacred Heart of Your Son.
Grant us the grace to always respond to Your call with lives of active faith, firm hope and Christian charity.
Aided by the example of Saint Augustine,
may we always seek to embrace and love
the teachings of Your Church.
Accompanied by Our Lady of Mount Carmel,
may we, in joyful times and in times of Sorrow,
always strive to be faithful followers of Your Son,
Jesus Christ,
for He lives and reigns with You,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
One God, forever and ever!
Amen!
Sacred Heart of Jesus, We trust in Thee!

Mission Co-op Appeal

Dear Friends,

The Sisters, Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary announced their assignment changes earlier this summer. The changes are effective the beginning of August. Sister Janice Urbanec, IHM, our Parish Services Director, as well as Sister Marie Hortsman, IHM, have been reassigned and are leaving our convent. We offer both our prayers and best wishes as they take on new positions within their religious community. Replacing Sister Janice as our Parish Services Director is Sister Eileen McGuigan, IHM. Sister Eileen has already been living at Sacred Heart Convent and performing other ministry for the community. We welcome to Sister Elenore Joseph Ertel, IHM, to Sacred Heart Convent. Sister Elenore is replacing Sister Marie as Director of Religious Education at St. Patrick Parish, Norristown.

Normally at this time of year a priest from the missions speaks at all the Masses on behalf of the annual Mission Co-op collection. However, since Father Charles Kennedy was here earlier this year to speak at the Masses on behalf of Father Chuck's Challenge, we were not assigned a missionary priest for the Mission Co-op. Therefore, donations received in the second collection next weekend and in envelopes dated August 4 marked Mission Co-op will be sent to Father Chuck's Challenge.

All who are interested in attending a six-week Bible Study on the Acts of the Apostles that I will be leading are asked to either email me at sacredheartpastor02@gmail.com or call the parish office during regular business hours. The sessions will be conducted in the Rectory Meeting Room on Tuesday evenings beginning September 10 at 6:30 PM. Study guides are $8 each.

Registration is open for PREP for the upcoming school year. Forms are available for pick up after Mass in the pamphlet rack in the church narthex and at the rectory office during the week. Registration fees after July 1 are $150 for one child and $250 for two or more children.

Anyone baptized in the Catholic Church but has not received the Sacraments of Confirmation and/or Holy Eucharist, as well as those either baptized in another Christian faith community or not baptized and are interested in learning more about the Catholic faith are asked to contact the rectory as soon as possible.

Nomination forms for two positions on the Council are in today's parish bulletin. Please take the opportunity this week to think about whom you would nominate for service on the Council. He or she is to be a registered member, over the age of 18, and has a desire to work for the overall good of the parish. Completed forms can be put in the collection basket or dropped off at the rectory. Deadline for submission is Monday, August 12. Current Council members are Shirley Funkhouser, Jeanette Guziewicz, MaryCatherine Murphy, Sheila Sargent, Briana Wisniewski, and Val Zaremba.

Sincerely,

Father Nasta

OUR LADY OF FATIMA

Faith Formation

This is the second of a four-part summary of the Decree on the Ministry and Life of Priests from the Second Vatican Council.

Priests, in union with bishops, share in the one and same ministerial priesthood of Christ. Bishops, therefore, are to regard priests as their brothers and be concerned for their material and especially their spiritual well-being. They should provide means for priests to continue their formation. They should listen to, consult with, and engage in dialogue with their priests with matters regarding pastoral ministry and welfare of the diocese. A representative body of priests can make this more effective. Priests are to respect bishops and to stand by them in sincere charity and obedience.

Priests are united among themselves in an intimate sacramental brotherhood. In each diocese, priests form one priesthood under their bishop. Each and every priest, diocesan and religious, is united with his fellow priests in a bond of charity, prayer and total cooperation. No matter the assignment or work, all priests are united in building up the Body of Christ. Older priests should welcome younger priests as true brothers and help them in their initial undertakings. Younger priests should respect the age and experience of older priests, seeking their advice and willingly cooperate with them in everything that pertains to the care of souls.

A priest is to exhibit a fraternal spirit, hospitality, and generosity in his daily life. He is also to show concern for the sick, the afflicted, those overburdened with work, the lonely, those exiled from their homeland, and those who suffer persecution.

Priests are encouraged to have a common life. This can take the form either of by living under the same roof, sharing a common table for meals, or attending periodic meetings. Priests are obliged in a special manner to care for their brother priests who labor under certain difficulties. They should always treat their brother priests who have failed in some matters with fraternal charity.

Priests must not only work together with the lay faithful, they are to sincerely acknowledge and promote the dignity of the laity, willingly listen to them, consider their wants in a fraternal spirit, and recognize their experience and competence.
