Saint Augustine, Our Lady of Mount Carmel & Our Mother of Sorrows ~ 'United In The Sacred Heart'

SUNDAY, JANUARY 26, 2020 ~ THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Sacrament of Baptism

Baptism is celebrated on dates that are mutually convenient for Father Nasta and the parents. Before a Baptism date can be set, parents should secure letters of eligibility for their recommended Godparents and present them to the rectory. Parents attendance at our Parish's Pre-Jordan program should be satisfied before a Baptism date is set. Parents are asked not to make any celebratory arrangements until a Baptism date is confirmed by our Rectory staff.

The Sacrament of Confession

Saturday afternoon: 3:15pm – 3:45pm.
By appointment at the rectory anytime.

The Sacrament of Marriage

Please speak to Father Nasta at least six months before your anticipated Wedding date. Couples should not make any celebratory arrangements until after they have met with Father at our Parish.

The Sacrament of The Sick

Please speak to Father Nasta if you or a family member wish to receive the Sacrament of the Sick. It is always appropriate to receive this Sacrament before surgery, during a serious illness or in the final stages of life.

Our Parish Prayer of Unity

Heavenly Father,
You call us to be Your faith-filled people,
United in the Sacred Heart of Your Son.
Grant us the grace to always respond to
Your call with lives of active faith, firm hope and Christian charity.
Aided by the example of Saint Augustine,
may we always seek to embrace and love
the teachings of Your Church.
Accompanied by Our Lady of Mount Carmel,
may we, in joyful times and in times of Sorrow,
always strive to be faithful followers of Your Son,
Jesus Christ,
for He lives and reigns with You,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
One God, forever and ever!
Amen!
Sacred Heart of Jesus, We trust in Thee!

Dear Friends,

Today is the first Sunday of the Word of God. Please go to the Faith Formation section of today's bulletin for a summary I prepared of Pope Francis' apostolic letter that instituted this observance.

Thank you for your generosity in donating $1,582 in the second collection recently taken for Church Heating.

The 2020 Catholic Charities Appeal begins next Sunday. A letter from the archbishop concerning the Appeal was received recently. The letter reads in part:

Dear Father Nasta,

We have completed the final preparations for the 2020 Catholic Charities Appeal ... and I want to share a few highlights. The theme for the Appeal is "Giving Hope to All." Over the past several years, recommendations from the Catholic Charities Appeal Board have resulted in changes to the Appeal and contributed to its continued success.

The goal for the 2020 Catholic Charities Appeal is $12.5 million.... With regards to parish goals, your 2020 Catholic Charities Appeal goal is $17,000. This goal has remained unchanged from your 2019 parish goal.

Thank you for all of your support in helping to make the 2020 Catholic Charities Appeal a success.

Fraternally yours in Christ,

*Most Reverend Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap.
Archbishop of Philadelphia*

Next week's bulletin will have the final report of our parishioner's contributions to the 2019 Catholic Charities Appeal.

A series of severe earthquakes and aftershocks in Puerto Rico has severely damaged or destroyed many homes and much of the infrastructure on the island. The archdiocese is asking parishes to hold a second collection on a weekend to assist with relief efforts. This collection will take place in Sacred Heart on the weekend of February 8-9.

The next parish Holy Hour will begin at 7 PM on Monday, February 10, the Memorial of Saint Scholastica. All are invited to join our parish's Holy Name Society and Rosary Society in offering the Rosary and Evening Prayer.

The 12th annual Man Up Philly Men's Spirituality Conference is planned for Saturday, March 7, 2020 at Neumann University, 1 Neumann Dr, Aston, PA 19014. This event brings together men from across the archdiocese for an inspiring day of faith and fellowship. Speakers this year include Super Bowl LII Champion Brent Celek, Immaculee Ilibagiza, survivor of the Rwandan genocide, and Steve Bollman, founder of That Man Is You, a special ministry for Catholic men. Irish tenor Mark Forest will return to lead the singing at the Eucharistic Adoration. The Sacrament of Reconciliation will be available, and the Conference will conclude with Mass celebrated by the Most Reverend Archbishop Charles Chaput. For more information and to register go to the website: www.manupphilly.com

Sincerely,

Father Nasta

January, 2020

Dear Friends in Christ,

This year we have the privilege of celebrating World Day of Consecrated Life on Sunday, February 2, 2020, on the actual Feast of the Presentation of Our Lord. Christ Jesus comes as the Light of the World, sent by the Father. Consecrated Life is also a gift of God the Father to His Church, a light that shines through the many men and women who have consecrated themselves to the service of the Church. Consecrated men and women have served the Archdiocese of Philadelphia as members of religious congregations, secular institutes, and consecrated virgins and hermits from the early 1900's to the present day. Let us give thanks to God for their vocations and dedicated service.

As we celebrate World Day of Consecrated Life, we are given the opportunity to remember that we are privileged to have more than two thousand men and women religious active in our Archdiocese as well as those who are retired and the many who are members of our contemplative monasteries. Our Consecrated Virgins and hermits are also an active presence in the Archdiocese through their gift of prayer and service.

On this day of World Day of Consecrated Life I invite all consecrated men and women to participate in the 11:00 a.m. Holy Sacrifice of the Mass at the Cathedral Basilica of Sts. Peter and Paul. Following the Holy Sacrifice Mass there will be a reception in Drexel Hall. Please join us in celebrating this day.

May St. John Neumann and St. Katherine Drexel continue to intercede for vocations to the Archdiocese of Philadelphia and be the source of inspiration for all Catholics to pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life.

Sincerely yours in Jesus Christ,

+Most Reverend Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap.

Most Reverend Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap., Archbishop of Philadelphia

Apostolic Letter issued “Moto Proprio” by Pope Francis instituting the Sunday of the Word of God.

Last September 30, the 1,599th anniversary of the death of Saint Jerome, Pope Francis issued an apostolic letter directing the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time to be celebrated as the Sunday of the Word of God. The comes from the pope solely on his own initiative, hence the term “moto proprio.” The Memorial of Saint Jerome was chosen as the day to publish the letter because Saint Jerome not only translated the original biblical texts from Hebrew and Greek into Latin, but he is also the source of many commentaries or explanations of several books of Scripture. What follows is a brief summary of the pope’s letter.

Pope Francis cites three background sources for what he is to announce. The first source is Saint Jerome, who wrote in his Commentary on the Book of Isaiah: “Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ.” His second source is Dogmatic Constitution on Divine Revelation (Dei verbum), where, among other things, the importance of Scripture for the life of the Church is explained. The third source is Pope Benedict XVI’s Apostolic Exhortation Verbum Domini (“The Word of the Lord”), which emphasizes the use of Scripture in the liturgy.

Francis then writes “that the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time is to be devoted to the celebration, study and dissemination of the word of God.” That particular Sunday is chosen because it falls during the annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

He encourages several practices to mark the occasion. Among them are the enthronement of the Sacred Text at Mass, a homily addressing the appropriate honor due to God’s holy Word, and efforts to offer training for those reading the Scriptures at Mass to be “genuine proclaimers of the word.”

Clergy are reminded that Sunday Mass is the only opportunity for many of the faithful to hear the Scriptures and have it applied in their lives. Therefore, homilies are to be well prepared and based on the Word of God. They are neither to be dull, long-winded, nor roam from topic to topic. The homilist who prays and reflects on the Scriptures can speak from the heart and thus reach the hearts of those who listen.

The pope brings forth an image from Revelation 3. Jesus stands at the door and knocks; he will enter and eat with the one who hears his voice and opens the door for him. Jesus is knocking at our door with the words of Sacred Scripture. If we hear his voice in the Scriptures and open the doors of our minds and hearts to him, we will enter our lives and remain forever with us.

The role of the Holy Spirit is mentioned. The Holy Spirit was instrumental centuries ago when the sacred text was written and is effective today in those who hear God’s word. The inspiration of the Holy Spirit continues today whenever the Scriptures are taught by the Church; when the Magisterium, or official teaching office of the church, interprets it; and whenever a believer makes it the norm of his or her spiritual life. “When sacred Scripture is read in the light of the same Spirit by whom it was written, it remains ever new.”

The Holy Father tells of a couple of challenges Scripture itself gives. One is from Ezekiel, where the word of God is described as both sweet and bitter. Its bitterness comes from personal experiences of both the difficulties of our daily living of the Word and its rejection as meaningless for life. Its sweetness inspires us to share it with others and to announce its certain hope. A second challenge is from the parable of Lazarus and the Rich Man from the Gospel of Luke. One who listens to Sacred Scripture is to be led to practice mercy.

The letter concludes with the pope’s desire for the Sunday of the Word of God to be a means by which people become more familiar with Scripture for their daily living.
